

Gordon Reid

President, Stop & Shop

Gordon Reid is the President of Stop & Shop and has been working in this position since 2019. He also currently serves as a member of the USO Washington-Baltimore executive board and is a board member of the Partnership for a Healthier America.

Prior to joining Stop & Shop, Gordon served as president of Giant Food and led the brand to the number one market share position in each of its local markets. Under his leadership, the company made healthy eating easier and affordable, and also transformed the traditional shopping experience by increasing home delivery services.

Gordon has more than 35 years of international retail experience. Before joining Giant Food, he worked as CEO and Deputy Regional Director of North Asia for The Dairy Farm Group in Hong Kong. Previously, he spent time at Tesco in various leadership roles across several countries including Hungary, India and China. He also previously worked at Boots in the United Kingdom for 15 years, where he held general management roles, and at A.S. Watson Group spending time in Hong Kong, Taiwan and South Korea.

Gordon holds a Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy from Heriot Watt University in Edinburgh, U.K., and a Master of Business Administration from Nottingham University Business School in the U.K.
